What Children Need Now.
In spite of the best care mothers can give them this weather brings sickness to many children. Mrs. T. Neureuer, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. It is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough." It stops la-grippe coughs.

Artistic Upholstered Willow Chairs and Rockers to match, are now in. The price is surprisingly low.
We can sell one style at $8.00 each, chair and rocker. The finish—walnut—is the latest, the coverings a rich dark tapestry effect. You will surely want some of them, so let us show you NOW. Make your selections early in all lines, as prices are working up in nearly every case. We expect these goods will be higher.
May we suggest that in the matter of Interior Decorations, NOW is a good time to Paint and Paper?
Workmen are not so busy and stocks are at their best. Since buying our spring stock of paint, the price has advanced, and we are told it is to be advanced again. When the present stock is gone, we must pay more. The same is true of wall papers.

Banquet and Work.
The exemplification of the third degree of masonry by Island Pond Lodge, No. 44, last Monday evening attracted a large gathering of the craft. Thirteen different lodges were represented covering the territory from Portland to Montreal, and members of the Grand Lodges of Quebec and Vermont were present. It was a railroad men's night. The candidate being Mr. Harry Austin, many of his conferees along the line came in to pilot the work.
A banquet was served at the close of the lodge and Chef Parsons delivered the bi-valves in delectable condition. Rt. Wor. L. B. Jones presided as toastmaster and responses were made by Chas. A. LeBourveau, Master of United Brethren Lodge of White River Junction; Chas. L. Walton of Zietland Lodge, Montreal; Rt. Wor. D. D. Grand Master, Howard B. Lovell, Ashlar Lodge, Coaticook; Prof. P. A. Saunders of the New York jurisdiction; Roy P. Kent, Oriental Lodge, St. Albans; Walter French, Fraternal Lodge, Alfred, Me., and E. H. Doyle of Montreal closed the program with one of his dialect stories.
Among those present from out of town were Past Masters Withrow and Potter of Richmond, M. P. Brown of Portland and B. A. Seavey of Orleans.

Men's Christian Associations, and this year the day will be observed not only by the boys of the association, but also by the boys of the clubs, Knights of King Arthur, Boy Scouts and similar organizations. The idea of the day is to select teams of boys who go out with subscription papers and secure what money they can for the work with boys. Most of the money is secured in small amounts, and they will try to see everyone for a small sum. The money will all be used for work with boys, divided as follows: Fifty per cent to the local organization; thirty per cent to the state committee; twenty per cent to the international committee. The boys hope for a cordial reception and a little help from all.

Card of Thanks.
We wish in this way to extend our sincerest appreciation and heartfelt thanks to each and everyone who in any way assisted us in our time of need and for the many kindly words of sympathy to alleviate our sorrow during our recent bereavement.
